TASMA NEWS

Dear Lanie,

The October 2nd lecture by Antiques Roadshow presenter, Marc Allum, titled "The Anatomy of Collecting" promises to be an exceptional event. A special feature of this presentation is that selected Members of the audience will show their antique items to Marc for valuation on stage. Please do encourage your friends to join us.

We are pleased to present the new TASMA 2025 Programme. It promises to be another stellar year of eight presentations from the splendour of Catherine the Great's art collection, the rapture and contribution to art of Lowry to the iconic Age of Jazz and art of Francis Bacon. We hope you will find your favourites among the lectures given here.

We are growing and all thanks to you, our members and friends, but we do need help to deliver our view on the future for the benefit of us all. We need expertise in the areas of Facebook and Membership.

We also need to provide the best possible communications regarding Membership, e.g, Welcome email, precise details about options for new and renewal subscriptions plus ideas and suggestions on how we can improve. Your Committee is working on this and we will be reaching out to you for help but all your comments, critiques, etc. are welcome.

ANNA TRIP: 10 SEPTEMBER 2024

If you have not been to Anna to see the Palacio de los Condes de Cervillon, then consider doing so as it is well worth the trip. It resembles the Alhambra in Granada with respect to the intricacies of the Moorish architecture exterior elements and interior designs. Lake Anna is a beautiful setting with many areas to picnic and stroll around the waterfalls and lake.
