NOTEWORTHY EXHIBITIONS

The magical city of Lisbon is featured in this month's What's On as a major destination for art lovers. Between museums and private collections, galleries, and art fairs, Lisbon proves itself as one of the most vibrant cities in Europe.

The city proudly showcases world-class museums that are worth visiting to experience both the architectural magnificence of these buildings as well as their current collections. Pictured left is MAAT, recently added to the already impressive offer of museums Lisbon boasts. This innovative museum offers a dynamic program of exhibitions exploring the intersection of art, architecture, and technology. More+

The third major museum to visit is MAC/CCB – Museum of Modern Art. For many visitors, it is their favorite place in Lisbon.

MUSEUM OF ART, ARCHITECTURE AND TECHNOLOGY

CAM's New Building and Garden. CAM's new building was reimagined by Japanese architect Kengo Kuma, who collaborated with landscape architect Vladimir Djurovic, to perfectly integrate architecture and nature. The large canopy covered in white tiles with soft, organic lines which now marks the façade of the new building transforms its main entrance into an area of passage between CAM and the garden.
